

THE 11TH ANNUAL GOLDEN JOE AWARDS

Residence Hall Association

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO

DEADLINE: All nominations will be accepted until midnight on Monday, April 2nd, 2012 at the Residence Hall Association Office, which is located in the basement of Wallace Complex next to The VandalUnderground. Any applications turned in after midnight on Tuesday, April 3rd will not be accepted for judging. (There are NO exceptions.)

Dear Residence Hall Students and Staff,

As you know, the Residence Hall Awards Ceremony, The Golden Joes, is on Saturday, April 21st, tentatively scheduled for 7:00pm. This ceremony is a time when we recognize those in the Residence Halls, who have demonstrated outstanding leadership and service throughout the year. In order to determine whom to recognize, we need you to submit nominations for the awards.

Remember that the purpose of these awards are to recognize those who have been leaders and those who have served the students in their hall communities this year. Every hall has outstanding people living in that community who deserve to be recognized for their efforts. One person should not have to write all the nominations for your hall. At the absolute minimum every hall should be able to nominate at least one person for First Year Student of the Year, Man and Woman of the Year, People's Choice for Outstanding RA, and Program of the Year. The challenge is to nominate someone for every award.

Attached are the criteria for the individual award and two copies of the nomination form. If additional nomination forms are needed please feel free to make copies. If you have any questions please contact Sam Koester at samk@uidaho.edu.

Thank you for taking the time to nominate those individuals, halls, and programs that make Idaho the absolute best campus to live on.

RAYMOND T. HORTON DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

The Raymond T. Horton Distinguished Service Award was designed to recognize distinguished student leadership while serving the University of Idaho Residence Hall system over a several year period. Nominations should include information on the nominee's leadership and contribution to the residence hall community over the entire time he/she has lived in the halls.

Eligibility:

This award is available to all students (undergraduate and graduate) who have lived in the University Residences Housing Community during the 2011-2012 year.

Selection Criteria:

The nominees will be evaluated on the following criteria (the comments under each criterion are simply guidelines and not necessarily specific questions to answer):

- 🏆 Hall Leadership – what leadership roles has the nominee held in the residence halls; how has this person helped their hall community or the residence halls as a whole grow and develop; what activities and events has this person participated in; any conferences attended or programs presented; impact on residence hall community
- 🏆 Community Involvement – involved in any community-based organizations; participated in and/or organized any community service projects
- 🏆 Academics – is the nominee's GPA especially high; on the Dean's List; in any Honorariums; received any scholarships
- 🏆 Campus Involvement – involved in any campus clubs, activities and/or organizations; impact on campus community
- 🏆 Other Exceptional Qualifications – what makes the nominee stand out; why is the nominee an outstanding role model to other residents

One award is available. Nominations will be solicited from Residence Hall students and staff. The nominee or nominator must fill out the awards nominations form included in this packet.
